- 25X1A 1. [REDACTED] Comment. The amount of incoming shipments of ammunition at the GOFG depot in Wulkow during the last quarter of 1953 again confirms the assumption that the GOFG depots are filled to capacity and that they receive only little supply for the current practice firing. [REDACTED] The ammunition train from Finow to Wulkow may be connected with the evacuation of the ammunition depot in Waldeslust near Finow, which had previously been reported. [REDACTED] The arrival in late January of two trains from the USSR is believed to have been in conjunction with the winter firing practice. The 31 boxcars on 27 January were previously reported under train No 40/21010. [REDACTED] the transport directing center of the Fourth Gds Mech Army. [REDACTED] the ammunition depot of the Second Gds Mech Army in Dannerwalde. 25X1A 25X1B 25X1B
- 25X1A 2. [REDACTED] Comment. Up to mid-January, the amount of outgoing ammunition was small. The shipments confirm traffic relations of the GOFG depot at Wulkow to the ammunition depots of the six armies.
- 25X1A 3. [REDACTED] Comment. The shipments are connected with the winter firing at Altengrabow.
- 25X1A 4. [REDACTED] Comment. Presumably, shipment of discarded ammunition to the USSR. The shipment was previously reported. [REDACTED] 25X1A
- 25X1A 5. [REDACTED] Comment. The shipments probably served the refilling of stocks of the 34th Arty Div which had been engaged in winter firing at Justerbog. The shipment was previously reported under train [REDACTED] [REDACTED] 25X1 25X1A
